ABUNDANCE AT WORK

WORK ON THE FUTURE

We help businesses build solutions that improve the world of work and unlock people's abundance.

Futures Intelligence: Masterclass

Overview:

Every business wants to be better tomorrow than it is today. Every individual wants to improve on past performance. Although the future is unknown, you can still craft your preferred future. You can plan for it and work towards it. You can achieve future-readiness, by practising Futures Thinking and embedding it in your organisation as a "way of being".

This masterclass is designed to help you understand alternative futures and the worldviews that underpin them, so your organization has the capacity to conceptualize, anticipate, and prepare for the future now.

Duration & Structure

A self-study, learn-at-your-own-pace, online course, which takes between 5-7 hours to complete.

Course Outcomes:

At the end of the course delegates are able to:

- Explain what Futures Intelligence is and what it is not.
- Use a wide range of leading-edge tools and methods.
- Leverage your specific organisational and industry context to:
 - 1) Explore trends, issues, worldviews and narratives
 - 2) Articulate alternative futures
 - 3) Select preferred futures
 - 4) Build futures thinking

Target Audience:

The masterclass has broad appeal, and is suited to anyone interested in gaining a working knowledge of futures-thinking.
